POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Mud Horses Will Be in Their Element This Afternoon.

Blitzin, Though Top Weight, Looks a Likely Winner.

The races at Guttenberg to-day will run over a muddy track.

The card is an exceptionally good one, but scratches will no doubt be made every event, and this will hurt the action to some extent.

The best race of the day will be the handicap. Blitzin is favored of the favorite top weight. Bradley is an exponent of the Bill Daly principle, "that no money can be earned by horses standing in their stalls," and so Blitzin, despite his hard race yesterday, will start to-day. He concedes to Jeffcoat a half-pint, and Sir Richard two-thirds of a pound. This will make him very good.

Young Foote, Bayliss, Polydore, and host of other good sprinters start in the second race, a dash of four and a half furlongs.

The series has Test, Innovation, Blackburn, Monarch and other good ones. The other races are equally interesting.

The entries and selections are:

First Race—Parc-savoir, the short-horned auction; six furlongs.
